CONTACT/MAIL ENTRY TO:

Bill or Elaine Blaschke; 8999 Fairmount Rd., Novelty, Ohio 44072

BBlaschke@aol.com or EBlaschke@aol.com

Home/Bus: 440-338-6301 Bill's cell: 216-218-8890 Elaine's cell: 440-533-1878

All these numbers have voice mail, so if there is no answer, leave a message with a number so we can return your call.

We have a large variety of sheep and fowl that can be used to train your dog. This would include adult rams, ewes w/lambs at side, yearling rams and ewes, ducks, chickens and geese. We also offer the ability to train your dog in herding and penning on farm terrain ranging from open fields, woods, trails, streams, gullies and obstacles to test your dog.

Our facilities include a 50' diameter round pen, a 32' X 48' rectangular pen, a 187' X 288' paddock, a 2-1/2 acre paddock and a 25-acre pasture.

We do have limited parking for travel trailers or motor homes and can offer 115-volt electrical service and water. There will be a $10 per day charge for electric and water. Bring your own hoses and cords. We do not have septic service so your units must be self-contained.

A LITTLE ABOUT JACK:

Jack Knox is a renowned breeder, handler, trainer and trial judge making him a household name in the world of the working Border Collies. He has been training and running dogs his whole life and is an extremely popular, accomplished and well respected clinician. Jack has helped both novice and experienced handlers to improve upon and fine-tune their training and handling skills. He emigrated from Scotland to the United States in 1971. He initially lived in North Carolina for three years but now lives in Butler, Missouri with his wife and daughter. Jack has trialed heavily from the mid seventies to eighties and started teaching herding clinics in 1979. Jack is constantly learning and feels that his training methods have evolved over time. He has placed in and won numerous trials, including USBCHA National Finals. Jack is in the ABCA Hall Of Fame.
