Saturday June 16th
10 am – 4:30 pm

COTA FARMS

Pre-registration only, limited to 25 participants.
$35 or $40 with lunch.

Morning Session: 10 am to 12 pm General Introduction.

This session is for demonstration only: basic commands and movements, sheep will be moved from one paddock to another. Fundamentals of herding dog behavior, history, breeds, expectations, limitations, training requirements, dog evaluation and selection, (puppy or adult), Q&A.

Afternoon Session 1: 1 pm to 2 pm Getting your dog under control.

Mr. Wingard will work with the group, you and your dog, helping you to start the process of getting your dog under control, the first step in training your herding dog.

Afternoon Session 2: 2:30 pm to 3:30 pm Putting your dog to work.

Here's your chance to expose your dog to sheep, perhaps for the first time! Motivate your dog; get him interested in working for you.

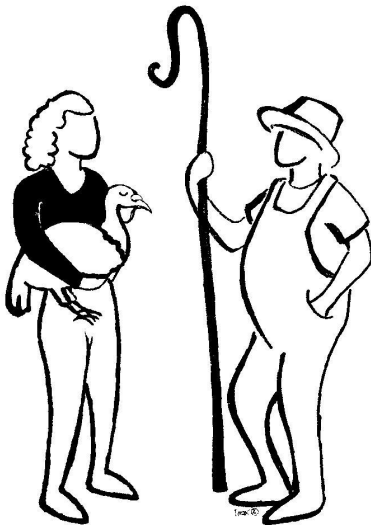

About our trainer: Simon Wingard has been raising sheep since 1980 and expanded his operation to over 1000 head of sheep in the early 90's. He found his first "good" dog in the Snake River Canyon of Oregon about this same time. It takes several good dogs to handle that many sheep!

Please keep in mind the socialization level of your dog and that there will be other dogs at the workshop. If your dog is not yet ready for this environment, we ask that you leave your dog home, enjoy the workshop and then make an appointment to have Mr. Wingard work one on one with you and your dog.

Lunch: If you chose to have lunch with us we will be serving grilled lamb burgers, of course! If you have never had Cota Farms lamb then you are in for a real treat. Speaking of treats, there sure will be treats for your lucky dog.

At the end of the day Mr. Wingard will be taking appointments for private training sessions. These sessions will be held in one hour blocks here at Cota Run Dog Park. You will also have the opportunity to inquire about the availability of one of his pups.

This is Belle, one of Mr. Wingard's pups that we purchased in 2010. She lives to herd!

We accept checks, credit cards and even Paypal. Fees are not refundable. In the event of really terrible weather, the rescheduled date will be July 7th. Make checks payable to: Cota Farms.

Cota Run Dog Park is located at 5270 County Road 25, Cardington Ohio, 43315. We are about 35 minutes north of Columbus off I71.
